

Australian Government

Classification Review Board

8 October 2013

MEDIA RELEASE

Classification review announced for the revocation of the serial classification of the publication, Australian Penthouse

The Classification Review Board has received an application to review the revocation of the serial classification of the publication, Australian Penthouse - declaration 256420.

Australian Penthouse was classified 'Unrestricted' with consumer advice 'M – not recommended for readers under 15 years' on 9 January 2013 for a period of 12 months.

On 21 August 2013, the Classification Board revoked the serial classification for Australian Penthouse as the May 2013 issue of the publication contained content that was considered higher than 'Unrestricted'.

The Classification Review Board will meet on Wednesday 23 October 2013 to consider the application. The decision and reasons will later be published on www.classification.gov.au.

If an individual or organisation wishes to apply for standing as an interested party to this review, please write to the Convenor of the Review Board. The names of interested parties will be disclosed in the Review Board's final decision report, unless requested otherwise.

The closing date to lodge your application for standing as an interested party and any submissions is Friday 18 October 2013. Please note that the Review Board can only consider submissions about the revocation decision of Australian Penthouse and not any other matters relating to classification policy or issues generally.

Submissions should be emailed to crb@classification.gov.au or sent to:

The Convenor
Classification Review Board
Locked Bag 3
HAYMARKET NSW 1240

The Classification Review Board is an independent merits review body. It makes a fresh classification decision upon receipt of an application for review. The Classification Review Board decision takes the place of the original decision made by the Classification Board.

Media contact

Media Enquiries Officer 02 9289 7100