20 December 2018—Christmas/New Year films and games

20 December 2018

With the holiday and gift-giving period fast approaching, the Classification Board would like to remind everyone about the classification markings and ratings restrictions, and provide a list of upcoming intended theatrical-release films and some already-released and upcoming computer games:

| Classification | Description |
|--|---|
|  General | Is for a general audience. However, it does not necessarily indicate that children or young people will enjoy the film or the game. Some G media contains themes or story-lines that do not interest children or young people. |
|  Parental guidance recommended | May contain material which some children/young people find confusing or upsetting, and may require the guidance of parents or supervisors. This media is not recommended for viewing by persons under 15 without guidance from adults. Parents may choose to watch the material with their children or find it sufficient to be accessible during or after the viewing to discuss content. |
|  Recommended for mature audiences | Is not recommended for persons under 15 years of age . There are no legal restrictions on access . |
|  Not suitable for people under 15 years who must be accompanied by an adult RESTRICTED | Is considered unsuitable for persons under 15 years of age . It is a legally restricted category . People under 15 years of age may watch this category of film in a cinema, however , an accompanying adult must be present in the cinema for the duration of the film. |
|  Restricted to people aged 18 years and over RESTRICTED | Is legally restricted to adults. |
